Mr. Akshat Garg (MD and CEO, Wishfy Greens) discussing the Clean & Green Initiative of Delhi Government with Honourable CM of Delhi Mrs. Rekha Gupta and Honourable Deputy CM of Delhi Mr. Parvesh Verma

From The Desk of The MD & CEO

Dear Esteemed Partners,

It gives me immense pride and gratitude to welcome you to the world of Wishfy Greens—a company built on the belief that sustainability is not merely a responsibility, but an opportunity to create a better future for generations to come.

Today, our footprint extends across landmark projects, Airports, government institutions, hospitality developments, commercial spaces, residential communities, and agricultural ventures. With successful projects across India, Dubai and the Middle East, we are committed to bringing world-class green solutions to some of the fastest-growing regions of the world.

At Wishfy Greens, we believe that every plant nurtured, every landscape designed, and every sustainable ecosystem created contributes to a larger purpose. Our work is not measured solely by the projects we complete, but by the positive environmental legacy we leave behind. Whether it is revitalizing public spaces, enhancing urban biodiversity, enabling climate-smart agriculture, or creating iconic green destinations, our mission remains unwavering.

What truly sets us apart is our ability to integrate landscaping, horticulture, precision agriculture, and sustainable infrastructure under one unified vision. This holistic approach allows us to deliver solutions that are aesthetically inspiring, environmentally responsible, and economically sustainable.

As we continue our growth journey, our aspiration is bold yet simple: to become a globally recognized green infrastructure company that helps cities breathe better, businesses operate greener, communities thrive healthier, and future generations inherit a more sustainable planet.

I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to our clients, partners, government bodies, investors, and dedicated team members whose trust and support have been instrumental in our success. Together, we are proving that growth and sustainability can go hand in hand.

The future belongs to organizations that create value not only for their stakeholders but also for society and the environment. At Wishfy Greens, we are proud to be building that future—one landscape, one project, and one community at a time.

Together, let us create greener cities, stronger communities, and a more sustainable world.

With Warm Regards,

Akshat Garg
Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer
